AMERICAN NICKEL WORKS,

Camden, N. J., Jan 21 1890

Hon C C Bosbyshell

Supt. U. S. Mint

In accordance with your request of yesterday I have today telegraphed for prompt shipment of bronze blanks.

I called at the Mint one day lately to ascertain whether you were sufficiently supplied, but, not finding you, asked Mr. Downing, who said that the supply was adequate though slender.

It was my habit in Supt. Cox's time to call rather frequently at the Mint in order to be sure of keeping up a full but not excessive supply. I have feared that if I should do so under existing circumstances it might be considered intrusive.

Yours truly

Joseph Wharton

Hon. O.C. Bosbyshell
Supt. U.S. Mint

In accordance with your request of yesterday I have today telegraphed for further shipments of bronze blanks.

I called at the Mint a day lately to ascertain whether you were sufficiently supplied but not finding you, asked M Dunning, who said that the supply was adequate though slender.

It was my habit in Supt. Fox's time to call rather frequently at the Mint in order to be sure of keeping up a full but not excessive supply. I have feared that if I should do so under existing circumstances it might be considered intrusion.

Yours truly,
Joseph Warton
